This Information Statement serves the purpose of informing stockholders of the matters described herein pursuant to Section 14(c) of the Securities Exchange Act and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder.

THE ACQUISITION OF NEW ENERGY ASIA PACIFIC INC.

Background

On December 13, 2023, the Company entered into a term sheet (the “Term Sheet”) with Chan Heng Fai (the “Seller”), the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and largest stockholder of the Company. The original Term Sheet subsequently expired. The Seller and the Company later negotiated revised terms pursuant to which the Company will purchase from the Seller all of the issued and outstanding shares of New Energy Asia Pacific Inc. (“NEAPI”), a corporation incorporated in the State of Nevada. NEAPI owns 41.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of New Energy Asia Pacific Company Limited (“New Energy”), a Hong Kong corporation. New Energy focuses on distributing all-electric versions of special-purpose and transportation vehicles, charging stations and batteries.

As of the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Mr. Chan owned all of the issued and outstanding shares of NEAPI, which in turn owned 41.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of New Energy.

This related party transaction was initially presented by our Chairman in late 2023 and negotiated by the parties in anticipation of entering into a definitive agreement. Certain officers on behalf of the Company and Mr. Chan on behalf of himself discussed the transaction. The transaction was presented to and approved by the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors during meetings of each. On December 13, 2023, the Company entered into a term sheet with Mr. Chan outlining the terms of the transaction.

In February of 2025, ValueScope, an independent valuation firm, delivered an opinion (the “Fairness Opinion”) to the Company’s Board and a revised term sheet (the “Revised Term Sheet”), the material terms of which are described below, was entered into by the parties on May 8, 2025, in light of the findings of the Fairness Opinion. On May 22, 2025, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with Mr. Chan, the Company’s Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and largest stockholder, pursuant to which the Company agreed to purchase from Mr. Chan all of the outstanding shares of NEAPI for a purchase price of $83,000,000 in the form of a promissory note convertible into newly issued shares of the Company’s common stock (the “Stock Purchase Agreement,” and the “Convertible Note”). The Convertible Note bears a simple interest rate of 1% per annum. Under the terms of the Convertible Note, Mr. Chan may convert any outstanding principal and interest into shares of the Company’s common stock at $3.00 per share upon ten (10) days’ notice prior to maturity of the Convertible Note five (5) years from the date of the Revised Term Sheet, and upon maturity of the Convertible Note any outstanding principal and accrued interest accrued thereunder will automatically be converted into shares of the Company’s common stock at the conversion rate.

The related party transaction was negotiated by certain officers on behalf of the Company and Mr. Chan on behalf of himself prior to the parties entering into the Stock Purchase Agreement. No outside financial advisors or investment bankers were engaged to evaluate the transaction. An independent valuation of the NEAPI Shares was conducted on behalf of the Company. The parties agreed to use the price of the NEAPI shares as determined by the valuation.

The Fairness Opinion was based on financial information available as of January 24, 2025 (the “Valuation Date”). ValueScope did not recommend or determine the consideration to be paid by the Company. ValueScope was instructed to determine the fair value of the equity of the Company and of New Energy and to deliver their opinion as to whether the consideration to be paid by the Company for the equity interest in NEAPI, as already negotiated, is fair to the Company from a financial point of view. The Fairness Opinion stated in part that subject to the information and the qualification set forth therein, they were of the view that as of the Valuation Date, the purchase price to be paid by Alset to acquire NEAPI is fair to Alset from a financial point of view. ValueScope’s analysis included a review of the Revised Term Sheet, financial statements and projections, presentations made by the Company’s and New Energy’s management, a review of information relating to New Energy’s business and a review of pricing and financial data of comparable companies, and market information regarding the Company’s common stock. The Company agreed to pay ValueScope a fee of $43,000 for its services in delivering the Fairness Opinion. During the initial phases of the negotiation of the transaction in late 2023, the Company paid a fee of $61,000 to ValueScope for a fairness opinion on the acquisition at that time.

ValueScope was selected to review the transaction first for the initially proposed acquisition in 2023 and again to deliver the Fairness Opinion because of its reputation, as known to the Company’s management. ValueScope is regularly engaged to render financial opinions in connection with mergers, acquisitions, divestitures and for other purposes. ValueScope was selected from among other business valuation firms for these reasons and because the Company’s management believes the cost of their services to be competitive. The Company had previously contacted other potential valuation firms, and received quotes for the engagement. The Fairness Opinion will be made available for inspection and copying at the principal executive offices of Company during its regular business hours by any interested equity security holder of the Company or representative who has been so designated in writing. ValueScope utilized several valuation methodologies including the income approach, market approach, and cost approach, as well as several methods within each approach in order to determine the value New Energy. ValueScope used the market approach in order to determine the value of Alset.

Within the past two years the Company or certain of its majority-owned subsidiaries have engaged ValueScope to deliver two other fairness opinion regarding separate transactions not related to the NEAPI transaction. In one of these projects, a majority-owned subsidiary of the Company retained ValueScope to provide a valuation regarding another transaction; the Company’s subsidiary paid ValueScope $10,000 in August of 2024 and another $20,000 in September of 2024. In the second of these projects, another majority-owned subsidiary of the Company retained ValueScope in June of 2024, and paid an initial retainer of $35,000, a second payment of $30,000 in January of 2025, and will owe a third payment of $31,750 upon the completion of this project, which is anticipated in the near future.

The Audit Committee is comprised of independent directors, and accordingly excludes Mr. Chan, an interested party. The transaction, reflecting the Revised Term Sheet, was approved by the Audit Committee, and was approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, with Mr. Chan and his son, Chan Tung Moe, abstaining. The Stock Purchase Agreement and the Convertible Note were also approved by the Audit Committee, and were approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, with Mr. Chan and his son, Chan Tung Moe, abstaining. See the section of this Information Statement titled Other Financial Arrangements with our Chairman for more information regarding the Company’s financial relationship with Chan Heng Fai.

No government regulatory approval is required to complete the transaction. The rationale for the transaction is described below.

A subsidiary of Alset Inc. loaned a stockholder and director of New Energy approximately $1,141,743 in 2024.

Rationale

The Company intends for this to be a strategic move, in line with the Company’s commitment to advancing sustainable and eco-friendly solutions for the future. New Energy’s business focuses on promoting sustainability in the transportation sector by serving as a distributor of all-electric special-purpose and transportation vehicles, along with charging stations and batteries. The Company believes that lower carbon emissions, reduced noise pollution, and the elimination of fuel costs will continue to drive demand for electric vehicles. In addition to construction vehicles, which it expects will join the ranks of electric cars and public transportation as widespread eco-friendly alternatives to internal combustion vehicles, New Energy also distributes electric versions of special-purpose vehicles for municipal uses, adoption of which would offer similar benefits to customers. Currently, New Energy has a strong pipeline of demand, with signed collective sales secured via Memorandums of Understanding and continues to garner strong interest from local government departments and market demand. New Energy will seek to significantly increase revenues in the coming months relating to both electric chargers and electric vehicles. New Energy’s expertise extends across Asia, with established service and training centers in China and Hong Kong, and ongoing development planned in various parts of the world. The Seller is a member of the Board of Directors of New Energy. Mr. Lui Wai Leung Alan, the Company’s Co-Chief Financial Officer, is also a member of the Board of Directors of New Energy.

Other Financial Arrangements with our Chairman

On February 8, 2021, the Company and the Company’s subsidiary Alset Business Development Pte. Ltd. entered into an Executive Employment Agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) with the Company’s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Chan Heng Fai. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Chan’s compensation will include a fixed salary of $1 per month and two bonus payments each year consisting of: (i) one payment equal to Five Percent (5%) of the growth in market capitalization the Company experiences in any year; and (ii) one payment equal to Five Percent (5%) of the growth in net asset value the Company experiences in any year. In each case, such payment is to be calculated within seven (7) days of December 31st of each year. Such bonus payments shall be paid in cash or the Company’s common stock, at the election of Mr. Chan.

The Company and Alset Business Development Pte. Ltd. entered into a Supplement to the Executive Employment Agreement (the “Supplement”) with Chan Heng Fai on December 13, 2021. This Supplement amended the Employment Agreement. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, the term of the Employment Agreement was to end on December 31, 2025. The Supplement has amended the Employment Agreement to extend its expiration until December 31, 2030.

This Supplement also provides that if there is a change of control at the Company, Chan Heng Fai shall be entitled to cash payment equal to the amount he would have been owed through the term of the Employment Agreement (as extended by the Supplement). Such payment shall be calculated based on the highest annual amount paid to Chan Heng Fai through the date of such change of control. In addition, if Chan Heng Fai is terminated, pursuant to the Supplement, Chan Heng Fai shall be entitled to cash payment equal to the amount he would have been owed through the term of the Employment Agreement (as extended by the Supplement). The Company paid Mr. Chan a total of $448,430 and $0 in the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

On April 15, 2025, the Board awarded the Company’s Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Chan Heng Fai, 1,000,000 restricted shares of the Company’s common stock (the “Shares”). The Shares were granted to Mr. Chan as compensation for services rendered to the Company pursuant to the terms of the Company’s 2025 Incentive Compensation Plan, as adopted on March 17, 2025. Under the terms and conditions of the Award Agreement, the Shares may not be sold, assigned, transferred, pledged, encumbered or otherwise disposed of prior to April 15, 2026.

The Shares are not part of Mr. Chan’s regular annual compensation and will not be awarded on a regularly recurring basis.

CONVERTIBLE PROMISSORY NOTE

Principal Amount: US$83,000,000.00

May __, 2025 (“Effective Date”)

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, Alset Inc., a Texas corporation, having its principal office at 4800 Montgomery Lane, Suite 210, Bethesda, MD 20814 (the “Company”) promises to pay to Chan Heng Fai, an individual having his business address at 9 Temasek Boulevard #16-04, Suntec Tower Two, Singapore 038989 (together with his permitted successors and assigns, the “Holder”), the principal sum of Eighty Three Million US Dollars (US$83,000,000.00) (“Principal Amount”) and all accrued interest may be paid by the “Optional Conversion” (as hereinafter defined) of such amount into shares of the Company’s common stock (“Common Stock”) at the Conversion Rate, provided all of the conditions precedent contained in Section 3 of this Note have been satisfied, together with interest in arrears, if any, on the unpaid principal balance from time to time outstanding from the date hereof until the entire Principal Amount due hereunder is paid in full at the rate(s) provided below. “US$” mean the lawful currency of the United States of America (U.S.).

1. Maturity.

1.1 Maturity Date. The aggregate outstanding Principal Amount, together with all accrued interest, if any, thereon, reduced by unamortized prepaid interest, if any, (cumulatively, “Outstanding Amount”), shall, at the discretion of the Holder, either be repaid in cash and/or convert into shares of Common Stock of the Company as provided in Section 3 below and shall be due and payable in full on the earliest to occur of (the earliest of such events being the “Maturity Date”): (i) on or by the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date (“Term”); or (ii) the acceleration of this Note upon the occurrence of an Event of Default.

1.2 Redemption. The Company may, at its option, at any time during the Term, redeem a portion or all amounts of outstanding Principal Amount, without incurring penalties, additional interest, or other fees or charges; provided that the Company shall send the Holder written notice (“Redemption Notice”) of such redemption stating the amount of the Principal Amount being redeemed (“Redemption Amount”) and, if such redemption of the Note is in full, the place or places whether the Note is to be surrendered for payment. After a Redemption Notice is given, the Company shall deliver to the Holder the Redemption Amount within ten (10) business days of such Redemption Notice, during which period of time the Holder shall not have the right to convert any portion of this Note. If the Company fails to deliver the Redemption Amount to the Holder within ten (10) business days, then (i) all rights and remedies of the Holder under this Note, including conversion rights in accordance with Section 3 of this Note, shall continue as though no such Redemption Notice had been given, and (ii) the Company shall not have the right to redeem any portion of the Principal Amount for a period of thirty (30) calendar days following such failure to deliver the Redemption Amount.

2. Interest.

2.1 Interest Rate. This Note shall bear one percent (1%) interest per annum. Interest shall be paid quarterly, in cash or in Common Stock, at the Holder’s election, subject to Sections 3 of this Note, on or before the thirtieth (30th) day after the end of each quarter during the Term. Interest shall be computed on the basis of a year (365 or 366 days, as the case may be) and the actual number of days elapsed.

3. Conversion.

3.1. Optional Conversion. At any time during the Term, except as otherwise provided herein, the Principal Amount less any unamortized prepaid interest, if any, and all accrued interest, if any, thereon (“Maximum Conversion Amount”) may, at the sole option of the Holder, be converted, in whole or in part, into fully paid and non-assessable whole shares of Common Stock (“Optional Conversion”) in accordance with Section 3.4 below.

3.2. Mechanics of Conversion. The Holder shall notify the Company in writing of its election to convert all or part of the Maximum Conversion Amount (“Conversion Amount”) in accordance with Section 3.1 (“Conversion Notice”). Such conversion shall only become effective after all of the following conditions have been satisfied:

- a. The Company receives the Conversion Notice;
- b. The Holder executes any and all documents required in connection with becoming a holder of Common Stock;
- c. The Company issues and delivers to the Holder a certificate or certificates for the number of Common Stock, if any, to which the Holder shall be entitled as provided herein, within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the Conversion Notice (“Certificates”); and
- d. The Holder provides the Company with written confirmation that the outstanding balance of the Principal Amount and accrued interest, if any, has been reduced by the Conversion Amount (“Reduction Certificate”). Upon the occurrence of the events set forth in Sections 3.2 (a), (b) and (c) above, and this Section 3.2(d), the Company shall deliver to the Holder a restated note (“Restated Note”) evidencing the remaining outstanding balance of the Principal Amount, if any, which the Restated Note shall in all other respects be identical with this Note, except that the Maximum Conversion Amount shall be reduced by the Conversion Amount.

3.3 Conversion Rate. The price for conversion of Principal Amount into shares of Common Stock shall be US$3.00, subject to adjustment of stock split, if any (“Conversion Rate”).

3.4 Adjustment of Note Conversion Rate. In the event the Company shall in any manner, subsequent to the issuance of this Note, approve a reclassification involving a reverse stock split and subdivision of the Company’s issued and outstanding Common Stock, the Conversion Rate shall forthwith be adjusted by proportionally increasing the Note conversion price on the date such subdivision shall become effective. In the event the Company shall in any manner, subsequent to the issuance of this Note, approve a reclassification involving a forward stock split and subdivision of the Company’s issued and outstanding Common Stock, the Conversion Rate shall forthwith be adjusted by proportionally decreasing the Note conversion price on the date such subdivision shall become effective.

3.5 No Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued upon conversion of this Note. In lieu of the Company issuing any fractional shares to the Holder upon conversion of the Note, the Company shall pay to the Holder the amount of the fractional shares valued at the Conversion Rate.

3.6 Automatic Conversion. The outstanding principal and accrued interest payable at the Maturity Date shall automatically be converted into the Buyer’s common stock, at the Conversion Rate. Upon conversion, the Buyer shall issue and deliver to the Seller the number of common stock equal to the outstanding principal and accrued interest divided by the Conversion Rate.

4. Reservation of Authorized Shares.

4.1 Reservation. On the date of this Note, the Company shall have reserved all of its authorized unissued shares of Common Stock, including treasury shares of Common Stock (“Initial Reserve Amount”), solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of this Note or other convertible securities issued to the Holder, if any. After the increase in the Company’s authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock (“Authorized Share Increase”), the Company shall at all times thereafter reserve out of its authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock, a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Conversion Rate with respect to Maximum Conversion Amount of this Note, solely for the purpose of effecting the conversion of this Note (“Subsequent Reserve Amount”).

4.2 Insufficient Authorized Shares. If at any time after the Authorized Share Increase and while this Note remains outstanding the Company does not have a sufficient number of authorized and unreserved shares of Common Stock to satisfy its obligation to reserve the Subsequent Reserve Amount (an “Authorized Share Failure”), then the Company shall take all action necessary to effect an Authorized Share Increase.

5. Warranties and Representations by the Company. The Company represents to the Holder as follows:

5.2 Authorization; No Contravention. The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Note have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other organizational action, and do not and will not (i) contravene the terms of any of the Organization Documents of the Company; (ii) conflict with or result in any breach or contravention of any material contractual obligation to which the Company is a party or that is affecting the Company or the properties of the Company; or (iii) violate any Laws, where such violations would not reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.3 Governmental Authorization; Other Consents. No approval, consent, exemption, authorization, or other action by, or notice to, or filing with, any Governmental Authority or any other Person is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by, or enforcement against, the Company of this Note other than (i) those that have already been obtained and are in full force and effect; and (ii) approvals, consents, exemptions, authorizations, actions and notices the absence of which would not reasonably be expected to result in a “Material Adverse Effect” (as defined below).

Description of transaction

On December 13, 2023, Alset Inc. (the “Company”) entered into a term sheet with Chan Heng Fai (the “Seller”), the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer and largest stockholder of the Company. The Company had agreed to purchase from the Seller all of the issued and outstanding shares of New Energy Asia Pacific Inc., a corporation incorporated in the State of Nevada, for the consideration of $103,750,000, to be paid in the form of a convertible promissory note to be issued to the Seller. NEAPI owns 41.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of New Energy.

The parties have now mutually agreed to revise this agreement, and on May 8, 2025, the Company and the Seller entered into an Amended Term Sheet (the “Amended Term Sheet”). Under the terms of the Amended Term Sheet, the Company agreed to purchase from the Seller all of the outstanding shares of NEAPI through a stock purchase agreement for a purchase price of $83,000,000 in the form of a promissory note convertible into newly issued shares of the Company’s common stock (the “Convertible Note”). The Convertible Note shall have an interest rate of 1% per annum. Under the terms of the Convertible Note, the Seller may convert any outstanding principal and interest into shares of the Company’s common stock at $3.00 per share upon ten (10) days’ notice prior to maturity of the Convertible Note five (5) years from the date of the Amended Term Sheet, and upon maturity of the Convertible Note any outstanding principal and accrued interest accrued thereunder will automatically be converted into shares of the Company’s common stock at the conversion rate.

As of the date of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Mr. Chan owned all of the issued and outstanding shares of NEAPI, which in turn owned 41.5% of the issued and outstanding shares of New Energy.

The related party transaction was negotiated by certain officers on behalf of the Company and Mr. Chan on behalf of himself prior to the parties entering into the Stock Purchase Agreement. No outside financial advisors or investment bankers were engaged to evaluate the transaction. An independent valuation of the NEAPI shares was conducted on behalf of the Company. The parties agreed to use the price of the NEAPI shares as determined by the valuation, and the Net Asset Value of the Company’s stock at the time for determining consideration of the transaction.

This is an acquisition of non-business asset and significant to the Company, under both SEC Regulation S-X guidance and U.S. GAAP ASC 805. The transaction will affect the Company’s financials prospectively from the date of closing. The Company will record both an investment on New Energy by equity method and a convertible note payable to related party.
